FIRE NOTICE.—Immediately upon being shown to your seat, locate the nearest EXIT to your seat. In case of fire, walk (do not run) to that EXIT. Keep cool, and try to help your neighbor.

PRICES.—Matinees—10c, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c; Box Seats, 75c. Evenings and Holiday Matinees—15c, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c; Box Seats, $1.00. Seats may be reserved by phone. Call Main 698.

Ticket Office open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Mail orders given every attention.

TO OUR PATRONS.—It is understood as a condition of the sale of seats that ladies as well as gentlemen in all parts of the theatre will kindly remove their hats during the performance. Seats reserved by phone are held 24 hours. Seats reserved by phone or otherwise are held only till 6 p.m. for evenings and 12 noon for matinees. On Saturdays, the night seats are held till 12 noon only. For holidays reservations are held till noon the preceding day. Attachees are not permitted to accept gratuities or fees of any kind. The admission charge includes all advantages offered by the Orpheum's superior equipment.

Ladies' retiring room at left of the main entrance with a matron in charge; also in mezzanine lobby of balcony, and at north end of gallery lobby. Gentlemen's smoking room at right of main entrance. Check room at left of entrance to orchestra seats and in the balcony lobby. It is the constant aim of the Orpheum management, in presenting vaudeville, to prevent the use of a single word, expression or situation that might offend the most intelligent, refined and cultured. Physicians and others expecting a summons should leave their names and seat numbers at the box office. Children in arms not admitted. All others of whatever age must have full tickets. Infants may be left in charge of matron in ladies' parlor. Articles lost or found should be reported to the box office. On rainy afternoons and nights an umbrella may be obtained at the box office on loan after the performance by depositing one dollar; on the return of umbrella to box office a refund of 75 cents will be made.

Only sanitary water cups, sanitary towels and sanitary soap receptacles are in use in the theatre. Patrons having complaints or suggestions to make should do so direct to the manager.

EDW. J. SULLIVAN, Resident Manager.
